VENUES' INFORMATION

OLYMPIC BASKETBALL ARENA

Location:

North side of the Olympic Park, Stratford

Year of construction: 2010-2011

Spectators: 12,000

Estimated cost: £40,000,000

One of the largest temporary sporting venues ever built, the London Olympic Basketball Arena seats 12,000 spectators and will host all basketball games from the men's and women's tournaments except for the Quarter-Finals of the men's event and the Semi-finals and Finals (men and women), which will be held at the North Greenwich Arena.

This venue will also host the conclusion of the handball tournaments and Paralympic wheelchair basketball and rugby.

An impressive white cloud-like structure, it looks light in spite of its very large size – 35m tall and large enough to fit a jumbo jet inside.

It is expected to be lit up by coloured lighting during the Games, similarly to Bayern Munich's impressive football stadium.

The Basketball Arena was designed and built specifically as a temporary structure and is set to be dismantled following the Paralympic Games, to be reused for other major sporting and non-sporting events, fitting into the Organising Committee's plans of delivering not only on the Games themselves, but also a legacy for sport in Britain.

London 2012

NORTH GREENWICH ARENA (FORMERLY O2 ARENA AND MILLENNIUM DOME)

Location:

Drawdock Road, Greenwich Peninsula

Year of construction: 1999 (redevelopment 2007, 2012)

Spectators: 20,000

Estimated cost: £ 789,000,000 (Millennium Dome)

London 2012

Set to host the climax of the men's (Quarter-Finals onwards) and the women's (Semi-Finals onwards) basketball tournaments (as well as gymnastics), the North Greenwich Arena is the largest indoor Olympic venue for 2012. With a height exceeding 50m, the marquee-like structure is supported by 12 pillars of 100m extending out of the canopy.

Having become one of London's most recognisable landmarks, the North Greenwich Arena is also among the city's largest buildings. Originally built as a celebratory exhibition centre for the new millennium, it was redeveloped in 2007 into a multi-purpose entertainment venue, hosting concerts, sporting events as well as numerous other entertainment shows and events.

The Dome, as it is commonly known to Londoners, is no stranger to basketball as it has previously hosted several NBA Europe games, including the first-ever regular season games played in Europe in March 2011, when the Toronto Raptors took on the New Jersey Nets.
