NIKE INTERNATIONAL JUNIOR CLASSIFICATION TOURNAMENTS

Following the successful introduction of two classification tournaments in 2008 (L'Hospitalet and Belgrade) and a third in 2009 (Rome), the Euroleague has decided to add one more this season, in London. With these changes, Europe's best under-18 players will be present in Paris, and the team winning the tournament in May will be crowned the undisputed European Junior Club Champion.

«When we first held a junior tournament six years ago on the occasion of the 2003 Final Four in Barcelona, our aim was to create something that has never before existed - a European junior club championship», Jordi Bertomeu, Euroleague Basketball CEO, said. «Thanks to the wonderful support we receive in our excellent relationship with Nike and our collaboration with A.S. Stella Azurra, CB L'Hospitalet, FMP and Barking Abbey School, we now see this come to fruition».

Every city will see either eight or twelve teams competing over three days for the possibility of booking their place in the 2010 Nike International Junior Tournament, to be held May 6 to 9 in Paris, France. In 2009, La Caja de Canarias Gran Canaria (Spain), Lietuvos Rytas (Lithuania) and FMP (Serbia) won their respective classification tournaments, with FMP going on to win the NIJT in Berlin.

The first classification tournament will be the Torneo Città di Roma, organised by A.S. Stella Azurra in Rome, Italy and running from December 27 to 29, 2009. This will be swiftly followed by the orneig Junior Ciutat de L'Hospitalet, organized by CB L'Hospitalet in L'Hospitalet, Spain and running from January 4 to 6, 2010. The third classification tournament will be the Euroleague Basketball Nike International Junior Classification Tournament Belgrade, organised by FMP in Belgrade, Serbia and running from February 12 to 14, 2010. This will be followed by the Barking Abbey Academy Euroleague Basketball Junior Classification Tournament in London, United Kingdom and running from February 19 to 21, 2010. The climax of the year will take place in parallel with the Final Four, when the Nike International Junior Tournament takes place in Paris, France from May 6 to 9, 2010.

As the place where future stars are born, the list of NIJT alumni is rapidly growing and yet more will begin their path to stardom this season. Many players who began their careers at one of the tournaments can now be found on Euroleague and Eurocup teams, including Jonas Maciulis (Armani Jeans Milano), Milos Teodosic (Olympiacos Piraeus), Luigi Datome (Virtus Roma), Mirza Begic, Povilas Butkevicius, Mantas Kalnietis and Zygimantas Janavicius (Zalgiris Kaunas).

Fans will be able follow the action every step of the way to a new continental champion at http://www.euroleague.net/events/nike-international-junior-tournament/main-page

where articles, statistics, game reports, photos and links will be available during each and every tournament. The action tips off in Rome on Sunday, December 27 as twelve teams begin their own Road to Paris. On May 9, 2010 a new champion will be crowned at the Palais Omnisports de Paris Bercy merely hours before the two best teams in Europe take the same court for the final game in the Euroleague Basketball Final Four. The winner in Paris will not only be crowned as the new European junior champions, but will also qualify for next summer's 2010 Nike Global Challenge tournament in Portland, Oregon, U.S.A.

Madrid
Tip Off

Legendary center Dino Radja wrote part of basketball history by being the first player to score a basket in the new Euroleague. Radja made his historic shot 20 seconds into the 2000-01 inaugural game, Real Madrid vs. Olympiakos Piraeus, at Raimundo Saporta Pavillion in Madrid. Real Madrid was the first team to record a victory, but everyone was a winner that day as a new era dawned in European basketball.

EUROLEAGUE BASKETBALL
NEW SEASON WELCOME

With its decade celebration, the Euroleague kicks of its 2009-2010 season with a new beginning. A beginning that will set the direction for a stable and prosperous future of the top European competition. With the changes that have been implemented, the new Euroleague has become a competition that will bring together some of the best European teams who have proven themselves over the past years as well as the champions of the biggest national competitions. The new Euroleague will have a greater number of countries being represented in a competition that is more open and hard-fought than ever before and that will make European basketball become a top-tier sport across the globe.

Euroleague is opening up to new clubs and new countries, it is helping to consolidate the sporting projects that have proven to be solid in the last few years, and it is serving as a motivation for teams that aspire to become part of an elite group. Its participating teams are the identity of a league that commences its tenth edition with a new format that is true to its founding principles but that requires a qualitative leap forward in order to consolidate a great professional basketball league. It is only through these solid projects that the sport will be able to grow. And so the beginning of the 2009-2010 season kicks off with a lot of work to do, but with clear objectives in sight.

Now it is the time to continue progressing with our clubs, to get closer to our fans and to confirm that basketball is a global sport. We have to show that European basketball has qualities that are unique and are based on the work done by our clubs and national leagues, collaborating with the federations, and that we have the capacity to develop great players, great talents, for our fans to enjoy.

The best European clubs, players, coaches and referees, who make the Euroleague what it is, come together one more year to offer the European public the best European basketball competition. On behalf of them, we would like to thank all the media for their enormous contribution to the league and for allowing us to be closer to our fans.

Enjoy the tenth season of Euroleague and see you at the Final Four in Paris.

EUROLEAGUE BASKETBALL CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSABILITY PROGRAM

http://www.euroleagueforlife.org/

Euroleague Basketball launched its corporate social responsibility program, Euroleague for Life, during the 2006-07 season with the aim of making it an integral part of the company's mission. Euroleague for Life is based on the belief that sport and health are important values that shape people's lives positively in a world where poverty, illness, wars and catastrophe afflict millions. By merely practicing sport, people not only feel better physically, but can escape from sometimes harsh routine and thereby feel better mentally. To those who practice it, sport brings back the joys of childhood. And through sport, people of all different walks of life can share a passion that unites them all. Through the example and cooperation of our players, teams and leagues, Euroleague Basketball seeks to encourage and motivate people to choose sport as a way of life. We are confident that out players, teams and leagues will embrace future Euroleague for Life initiatives just as they have demonstrated their full interest and collaboration in the past. We are sure that with all our passion and dedication, this project will become a reality. Please help us to make our dreams come true today.
